Independence Day celebrations at Tropical Forest Research Institute

■ Staff Reporter

THE 68th Independence Day was celebrated at Tropical Forest Research Institute (TFRI), Jabalpur on 15th August, 2014. The flag was hoisted by Dr. U. Prakasham, APCCF & Director TFRI on this holy occasion in the presence of all officers, scientists and employees of the Institute. The Indian national anthem, "Jana Gana Mana" is sung. While addressing the august gathering during the celebration, the Director, TFRI extended hearty greetings to all and pays tribute to the leaders of the Indian independence movement. He also advised the scientific community of TFRI to conceptualize, formulate and execute such projects which should be beneficial to the stakeholders.
