

Hindi fortnight programme at TFRI concludes

■ Staff Reporter

HINDI fortnight programme was successfully concluded at Tropical Forest Research Institute (TFRI), Jabalpur in a graceful prize distribution ceremony.

It may be mentioned that under the direction of Central Government and Ministry of Forest, Hindi fortnight programme was organised at TFRI from September 1 to 15. During the programme, several Hindi based competitions including quiz contest, administrative vocabulary competition, speech competition, scientific and technical vocabulary competition, essay writing, communication skills and poetry competitions were organised during the fortnight. A large number of officers and employees enthusiastically participated in their respective competitions and gave fabulous performances.

Chief guest of the prize distribution and concluding ceremony was TFRI, Director, Dr U Prakasham who honoured the outstanding participants with letter of appreciation and attractive prizes and wished them for successful implementation of Hindi language in their official working. He encouraged the officers and employees for paying special attention on utmost use of Hindi language in their official working and routine life for its desired promotion.

The programme was successfully organised under the supervision of Hindi Officer, Raja Ram Singh. During the programme, a large number of senior officers, scientists, employees, research scholars and students were present.

TFRI Director, Dr U Prakasham honouring the outstanding participants.

