

Three-day training on 'E-procurement and purchase management organised

■ Staff Reporter

THREE-DAY training on 'E-procurement and purchase management in Government, store-keeping and record maintenance' was inaugurated at Tropical Forest Research Institute (TFRI), Jabalpur.

C Behera, IFS, Group Coordinator Research and chief guest of the session, welcomed the participants and shared administrative experiences regarding purchase and management in government sector. Highlighting on the importance of the training for transparent procurement of store items, he briefed about importance of coordination among various departments and sectors involved in different departments.

Pramod Tiwari, training coordinator briefed the participants about the schedule and various Dignitaries during inaugural session of training programme at TFRI.

resource persons of the training programme. The training is being attended by 20 employees from four institutes of Indian Council of Forestry Research and Education (ICFRE) namely- Forest Genetics and Tree Breeding (IFGTB), Coimbatore; Institute of Wood Science and Technology (IWST), Bangalore; The Institute of Forest Biodiversity (IFB), Hyderabad and TFRI, Jabalpur.

Dr Avinash Jain, Dr Geeta Joshi, Dr Arun Kumar and Dr Pawan Rana along with all the scientists and officers of the institute were also present at the inaugural session. The formal vote of thanks was extended by Dr Rajesh Mishra.